Land Law Committee – Vacancies

The City of London Law Society (CLLS) Land Law Committee is seeking applications from prospective new members in response to the current workload and activities of the Committee. Applications are welcomed from those who are members (which also includes affiliates) of the CLLS either individually or as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm and who are at partner level or equivalent.

Applicants should be enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to the work of the Committee and be able to commit enough time to participate fully in its work, including the production of written materials and attending regular meetings in the City of London. Applicants must also be experienced practitioners in the sphere of land law.

To apply, please contact the Chair, Jackie Newstead, at Hogan Lovells International LLP, by e-mail at jackie.newstead@hoganlovells.com by the end of Friday 14th September 2018.

When applying, please send a CV or similar background materials and give an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee.

The CLLS is committed to the principles of equality, diversity and inclusion, and welcomes applications from all members of the profession irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion or sexual orientation.
