

Regulatory Law Committee – Vacancy

The City of London Law Society (“CLLS”) Regulatory Law Committee has a vacancy to fill in response to the current work of the Committee. The Committee is therefore seeking an application from prospective new members. Applicants should be members (which also includes affiliates) of the CLLS either individually or as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm, be enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to the work of the Committee, be at partner level or equivalent, and be able to commit enough time to participate in its work, including attending monthly meetings in the City of London. They should also be experienced practitioners in the sphere of regulatory law.

To apply, please contact the Chair, Karen Anderson, Partner, financial services and regulation, Herbert Smith Freehills by e-mail at karen.anderson@hsf.com by the end of Monday 8th May 2017.

When applying, please send a CV and give an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee.
