

PRESS RELEASE – 22.03.19

Proskauer Rose LLP becomes the latest member of the City of London Law Society

Proskauer has today joined The City of London Law Society, bringing the representative body's membership to 54 firms across the City.

Proskauer is an international law firm with 725+ lawyers across 13 offices located in the world's leading financial and business centers throughout North and South America, Europe and Asia. Proskauer London's 85+ team of lawyers works with asset managers, private equity, corporates and companies across the alternative finance space.

Proskauer is joining the CLLS's membership alongside 53 other existing member firms. The CLLS represents over 17,000 solicitors in the City of London on issues of interest to the profession.

CLLS Chief Executive, David Hobart, said:

"We are pleased to welcome Proskauer Rose LLP as our latest new member. We look forward to working with them closely in the near future on important issues for both the City and legal sector."

Proskauer Managing Partner, Mary B. Kuusisto, said:

"Building strong partnerships sits at the heart Proskauer's global and local strategy. We're delighted to become a member of the CLLS and partnering with an organisation that's so deeply entrenched in the UK legal business community."

 Ends ***

For further information please contact Katy Barney on +44 (0) 20 7321 0773 or katy.barney@projectassociatesltd.com