

City Solicitor Magazine – Editorial Board Vacancies

We have a number of vacancies on our City Solicitor Magazine Editorial Board which I hope might be of interest.

As you may know, City Solicitor Magazine is the quarterly newsletter of the City of London Solicitors' Company and the City of London Law Society. The magazine is unique as it is the only publication targeted specifically at solicitors practising in the Square Mile.

Here is a link to some recent editions:

The City Solicitor Editorial Board is seeking new members to join the group and we would like to hear from enthusiastic and creative members of the Company or the Society who can make an all round contribution and are interested in helping to develop the magazine for the future.

We are looking for individuals who are keen to get involved in planning unique and relevant content which appeals to the whole membership and the City profession. Previous experience is not essential.

Applicants must be able to commit enough time to participate in the work of the Editorial Board. This includes attending four planning meetings each year, contributing article ideas, and when necessary, sourcing other contributors.

To apply, please contact me by 20th April 2018, giving an indication of your main areas of interest in the publication and why you would like to get involved.

I very much hope that this is of interest and look forward to hearing from you but please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any queries or would like further information.
