

Employment Law Committee – Vacancies

The City of London Law Society (CLLS) Employment Law Committee has vacancies to the Committee in order to expand the range and representation of members of the Committee. It is therefore seeking applications from prospective new members. Applicants should be members (including affiliates) of the CLLS either individually or as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm, be enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to the work of the Committee, be at partner level or equivalent, and be able to commit enough time to participate in its work, including regular meetings in the City of London.

Copies of the minutes of the meetings of the Committee are available on the CLLS website and provide an insight into the work of the Committee.

To apply, please contact the Chair, Helena Derbyshire, at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, by e-mail at helena.derbyshire@skadden.com by the end of Friday 28th June 2019.

When applying, please send a CV and give an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee.

The CLLS is committed to the principles of equality, diversity and inclusion, and welcomes applications from all members of the profession irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion or sexual orientation.
