

UK-China Arbitration Summit

10-11 June 2019, London

This unique event will bring together leading practitioners from the UK and China to discuss the latest developments in international arbitration in an Anglo-Chinese context. The summit will also promote legal links and business between practitioners from both countries.

Topics will include:

- Court support for arbitration
- Avoiding disputes and achieving an early exit from disputes
- Legal co-operation on international disputes
- Choosing Chinese arbitral institutions for international disputes
- Regulation, ethics and soft skills in arbitration

The conference is aimed at senior representatives from leading law firms, chambers and arbitral institutions from China and the UK.

Confirmed speakers include:

- The Right Hon Lord Hodge, Justice of the Supreme Court
- Sir Jeremy Cooke, former judge of the Commercial Court, High Court; a SHIAC Panel Arbitrator and a Justice of the DIFC
- Ian Gaunt MA (Cantab); FCI Arb; DiplCarb, President of the London Maritime Arbitrators Association
- Merethe Borge MacLeod, Executive Director of the Great Britain China Centre
- Charles Wu, Head of regulatory section of ACLA; Director of Wu and Associates Law Firm
- Linda Yang, Global Partner & Executive Chairwoman of Yingke International Board of Directors

Go to <http://bit.ly/uk-china> to book your place or email IntlEvents@BarCouncil.org.uk