Year 126 and onwards: planning for the future of London's Commercial Court

London's Commercial Court, in collaboration with London International Disputes Week, is pleased to present our first virtual seminar as part of the celebration of the Court's 125th Anniversary. Please join us for a half-a-day seminar as we reflect on key issues for the Court's future: the lessons from the recent use of remote hearings, and new developments in both the Disclosure Pilot and the approach to witness statements

Sessions

- 1400 Introductory remarks: Lord Justice Flaux
- 1410 Virtual and Hybrid hearings - the lessons and legacies of the COVID learning curve
Coda: the Covid Insurance Test case: the first financial markets test case
- 1510 The Disclosure Pilot - Phase 2
- 1605 What next for witness statements?
- 1645 Concluding remarks and discussion on changes to the Court's procedures

Chaired by
