

Financial Law Committee – Vacancy

The City of London Law Society (CLLS) Financial Law Committee is made up of senior solicitors whose practice comprises the law relating to financial and banking transactions. The Committee has a vacancy to fill arising from the retirement of one of its members. The Committee would therefore welcome applications from prospective new members.

Applicants should be members (including affiliates) of the CLLS either individually or as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm. Applicants should be partners experienced in financial law, they should be enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to the work of the Committee, and be able to commit enough time to participate in its work, including regular meetings in the City of London.

Copies of the minutes of the meetings of the Committee are available on the CLLS website and provide an insight into the work of the Committee.

To apply, please contact the Committee Chair, Dorothy Livingston, of Herbert Smith Freehills LLP, by e-mail at dorothy.livingston@hsf.com. The deadline is close of business on Tuesday 31st March 2020.

When applying, please send a short CV and give an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee and what you would expect to contribute to the Committee.

The CLLS is committed to the principles of equality, diversity and inclusion, and welcomes applications from all members of the profession irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion or sexual orientation.
