The City of London Law Society invites members to a symposium with the SRA which will focus on mental health and wellbeing in the profession. SRA General Counsel, Juliet Oliver, will chair a panel of experts including:

Nick Bloy, a former lawyer and HR business partner, founder of Wellbeing Republic and member of LawCare's research committee looking at how the culture in law affects mental health.

Segun Osuntokun, BCLP managing partner, Business Person of the Year in the 2020 Black British Business Awards and author of an open letter scrutinizing the inclusivity and diversity efforts of the legal industry.

Elizabeth Rimmer, LawCare Chief Executive with 15 years' experience managing and developing charities in the mental health sector.

The event will be held via livestream on YouTube and is open to all staff at CLLS member firms. To reserve your place, please email Liz.Thomas@citysolicitors.org.uk

To make sure you get the most out of the event, we encourage you to submit your questions in advance. All questions submitted online are anonymous.

We do hope that you will be able to attend.
